Video Available for GISMO 9/11 Remembrance

The video from the GISMO 9/11 Remembrance that was presented on the second day of the NYS GIS Association Annual Meeting and Virtual Event is now available at: <https://www.nysgis.net/activities/conferences/nys-gis-association-2021-annual-meeting/>

If you weren't able to join then, it's worth taking the time to view how events unfolded from those who participated in the geospatial response..

SynerGIS Plans Presentations

SynerGIS, the user group focused on Tompkins County and the environs, met virtually on November 2nd to discuss future events. They are planning to use Zoom for presentations every two months.

GIS Day 2021

There were a number of GIS Day Events in New York State. We hope you were able to take a moment to celebrate. To see how GIS was celebrated in New York State and beyond, visit <https://www.gisday.com/en-us/overview>

Sullivan County posted a Celebrate GIS! website for GIS Day. They showcase GIS resources and interactivities for all ages. There are web mapping applications, story maps, and links for educators, gamers, history buffs, and map lovers, among others.

It's a great site for engaging with GIS all year long, not just GIS Day!
