Professional Development Resources

Don't forget about the Professional Development resources that are available through the NYS GIS Association!

The Professional Development Committee maintains a webpage of webinar presentations that date back to 2015 and include:

- how to apply for GISP certification and GISP exam tips,
- presentation skills,
- the importance of open parcel data,
- how to use the Mid-Atlantic Ocean portal,
- building mapping applications with open source tools,
- integrating geospatial technology into higher education, and many other topics. See what recordings are available and stay tuned for more at:
